

Mr. Ragheb Budeiri currently heads the Development Project Office that oversees and manages all development projects in the PMA. Mr. Budeiri helped establish the Development Project Office (PDO) in 2010 after the successful implementation of the national Real-Time Gross Settlement System (RTGS).

Ragheb Budeiri holds a Bachelor Degree in Computer Science from Huston-Tillotson College, Austin, TX. He also completed his Master Degree in Management Information Systems from National University, La Jolla, CA.

With more than thirty years of accumulated extensive experience in the Information Technology field with several multinational companies like Eli Lilly S.A, International Youth Foundation, IBM global services, USAID solidified his knowledge and know-how in various business domains. Mr. Budeiri possesses several professional certificates such as the Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer (MSCE), Microsoft Certified System Administrator (MSCA), Certified Cisco Network Associate (CCNA), and the Project Management Professional (PMP) certifications.

The DPO currently manages a portfolio over thirty-five million US Dollars applying industry standards and best practices set by the Project Management Institute (PMI). Ragheb Budeiri also liaises and coordinates all project activities with international bodies like the World Bank (WB), International Monetary Fund (IMF), Arab Monetary Fund (AMF), United States Agency for International Development (USAID) among many donors' community. This coordination ensures that projects are prioritized and sequenced to maximize the benefit attained in building and enhancing the core competencies within the PMA to achieves goals and objectives.